Mahato Shri Sunil Kumar;Thummar Shri Virjibhai

Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether some officials of Delhi Development Authority are reported to have been accused of duping staff and widows through a shop allotment racket; and

(b) if so, the details thereof and the action taken thereon ?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS AND MINISTER OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT (SHRI GHULAM NABI AZAD)

(a) and (b) Delhi Development Authority (DDA) has reported that they had received a complaint in November, 2002 from Bhartiya Bharastachar Virodhi Samiti alleging discremination in the allotment of shops to widows of its staff and in costing of shops. The complaint was inquired into by DDA and a report was submitted to the Lt. Governor, Delhi, who ordered its filing, as there was no substance in the complaint.
